Criminal No. 22-621 (MAS)

v.

AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

KATHERINE PETERSON

This matter having come before the Court for a telephonic conference on June 30, 2023; and the United States being represented by Shankar Ramamurthy, U.S. Department of Justice trial Attorney; and the defendant being represented by Mark A. Berman, Esq.; and the Court having determined that this matter should be scheduled for trial; and for good cause shown,

It is on this 5th day of July, 2023, ORDERED that:

1. The parties shall provide all expert disclosures on or before September 1, 2023.

2. The parties shall submit a joint proposed neutral one-paragraph statement of the case on or before September 1, 2023.

3. The parties shall electronically file correspondence indicating (a) whether or not they require the use of any of the Court's audio, visual, or other equipment; and (b) whether they intend to bring their own audio, visual, or other equipment, on or before September 1, 2023.

4. The Government shall provide its pre-marked exhibits on or before September 1, 2023.

- a. The authenticity and chain of custody of the Government's pre-marked exhibits shall be deemed to have been accepted unless an objection is asserted in accordance with paragraph 4(c).
- b. If the Government discloses the scientific analysis of an exhibit that it proposes to introduce at trial and that analysis has been determined by an expert in the field of science involved, the scientific analysis of the exhibit shall be deemed to have been accepted unless an objection is asserted in the form set forth in paragraph 4(c).
- c. If the Defendant wishes to contest the authenticity, chain of custody, or scientific analysis of an exhibit, counsel for the defendant shall file, on or before September 8, 2023, a notice that the authenticity, chain of custody, and/or scientific analysis of the exhibit will be contested at trial together with a statement delineating why the authenticity, chain of custody, and/or scientific analysis of the exhibit is being challenged and a certification that the challenge is being made in good faith.

5. The Defendant shall provide its pre-marked exhibits on or before September 15, 2023.

- a. The authenticity and chain of custody of the Defendant's pre-marked exhibits shall be deemed to have been accepted unless an objection is asserted in accordance with paragraph 2(c).

- b. If the Defendant discloses the scientific analysis of an exhibit that the Defendant proposes to introduce at trial and that analysis has been determined by an expert in the field of science involved, the scientific analysis of the exhibit shall be deemed to have been accepted unless an objection is asserted in the form set forth in paragraph 2(c).
- c. If the Government wishes to contest the authenticity, chain of custody, or scientific analysis of an exhibit, counsel for the Government shall file, on or before September 15, 2023, a notice that the authenticity, chain of custody, and/or scientific analysis of the exhibit will be contested at trial together with a statement delineating why the authenticity, chain of custody, and/or scientific analysis of the exhibit is being challenged and a certification that the challenge is being made in good faith.

6. The Government shall provide all material to be disclosed under Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), and its progeny, on or before September 8, 2023 and shall, if it agrees to do so, provide any material to be provided under the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. §3500, on or before September 8, 2023.

7. The parties shall file any in limine motions, addressed to the admissibility of evidence, and any Daubert motions, on or September 15, 2023; responses to such motions may be filed on or before September 22, 2023; and any oral argument on such motions will be held at the Court's discretion.

8. Defendant, if she agrees to do so, shall produce all "reverse Jencks" that is required to be disclosed under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 26.2 on or before September 29, 2023.

9. If the Government intends to offer any Rule 404(b) evidence, the Government shall provide notice of this evidence in the form delineated in Federal Rule of Evidence 404(b)(2)(A) on or before September 29, 2023. If the Government intends to offer any evidence under Rule 413 or 414, the Government shall provide notice of this evidence on that same date.

10. If the defendant intends to offer any "reverse Rule 404(b)" evidence, the defendant shall provide notice of this evidence in the form delineated in Federal Rule of Evidence 404(b)(2)(A) on or before on or before September 22, 2023.

11. The parties shall submit (a) a witness list, including the witness's hometown, (b) an exhibit list, and (c) a list of persons expected to be mentioned at trial, including the person's hometown, on or before October 6, 2023.

12. The parties shall submit joint voir dire requests on or before October 6, 2023.

13. By October 6, 2023, the parties shall file joint proposed jury charges, including without limitation, the elements of the offenses at issue. To the extent that the parties disagree regarding any individual jury charge, the parties must include each party's proposed jury charge directly followed by each party's position with respect to the disputed charge.

14. The parties shall submit all other requests to charge on or before October 6, 2023.

15. Defendant shall submit a redacted indictment, if necessary, on or before October 6, 2023.
